CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:14-CV-131

ORDER ON CONDITIONAL CERTIFICATION

The Court GRANTS Westbrook's Motion for Conditional Certification (D.E. 10). The parties' proposed notice and consent form (attached as Exhibit A) are approved. The following deadlines will control the notice and opt-in process:

1. January 16, 2015: Deadline for Defendant to provide to Plaintiff a list of centrifuge technicians (with last known addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers) who provided centrifuge services at any time during the past three years.
2. January 30, 2015: Deadline to send Notice of Collective Action and Notice of Consent form to class members.
3. March 31, 2015: Deadline for putative class members to return consent forms to opt-in to lawsuit.

ORDERED this 5th day of January, 2015.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:14-CV-131

NOTICE OF COLLECTIVE ACTION

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS MAY BE AFFECTED

TO: All persons who worked for Advanced Solids Control, LLC (Advanced) as a Centrifuge Technician, Solids Control Technician, or “Sit Hand” at any time during the three years preceding the date of this Notice.

DATE: January 30, 2015.

RE: Lawsuit Filed Against Advanced Solids Control, LLC Claiming Unpaid Overtime.

1. Why am I receiving this notice?

You are receiving this notice because you worked as a Centrifuge Technician, Solids Control Technician, or “Sit Hand” for Advanced. A lawsuit has been filed against Advanced alleging you and other Centrifuge Technicians, Solids Control Technicians, or “Sit Hands” are entitled to additional wages under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).

2. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiff Zach Westbrook (Plaintiff) alleges he and all other similarly situated Centrifuge Technicians, Solids Control Technicians, or “Sit Hands” are entitled to receive additional wages from Advanced under federal law because they were treated as independent contractors, paid on a day rate, and not paid overtime for hours worked in excess of forty per week.

Advanced believes the Centrifuge Technicians, Solids Control Technicians or “Sit Hands” were properly treated as independent contractors (not employees of Advanced), properly paid in accordance with applicable laws and therefore, not entitled to or eligible for overtime pay under the FLSA.

Exhibit A

3. What are my options?

If you want to join this litigation and claim overtime wages, you must mail the attached Notice of Consent to the Clerk of the Court at the address listed on the bottom of the Notice of Consent form. If you want to join this litigation, your Notice of Consent must be postmarked by March 31, 2015.

If you timely mail a Notice of Consent to the Clerk of the Court, you will become part of this case as a Participating Plaintiff. If you do not indicate otherwise on your Notice of Consent, you will be represented by Plaintiff's Counsel. You may be bound by the same fee and cost agreements as the present Plaintiff represented by Plaintiff's Counsel. The Court has discretion to assess fees and costs among the Participating Plaintiffs, and in the event Advanced prevails, you could be partially responsible for payment of court costs. You may also obtain counsel of your own choosing and at your own expense. If you decide to obtain your own counsel, you must indicate this on the Notice of Consent.

If you decide to become a party plaintiff in this case, you may be required to participate in the litigation, which could include providing sworn testimony in a deposition, answering interrogatories under oath, or testifying at trial of the case in Corpus Christi, Texas. If you join this lawsuit, you may receive money from Advanced through a verdict or settlement. On the other hand, if Plaintiff loses this lawsuit, you will receive nothing.

If you do not want to make a claim against Advanced for overtime wages, simply do nothing. If you do nothing, you will not receive any money from this case, even if the Plaintiffs win.

4. How can I get more information

You can get more information by calling Plaintiff's counsel or any attorney of your choosing. Plaintiff's counsel is:
